

My Homeschool Connection

Practical advice and encouragement delivered to your home

Dr. Walt Larimore

Producing Healthy Families in a Toxic Culture

WHEN:

October 25, 2012
6:30 - 8:00 p.m. ET

HOW

1. Register online at www.myhomeschoolconnection.com
2. Pick one session, two, or all three
3. Watch your email for your personalized event invitation
4. Test your computer to ensure easy access to the live event
5. 15 minutes prior to the live broadcast, click the link in your invitation and connect to the event
6. Connect and be encouraged

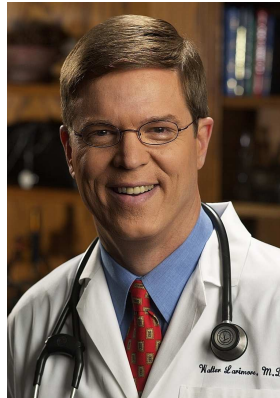

HAVE QUESTIONS?

If you have questions about the upcoming program or how you can connect:

Call 321-230-8427

or email us at

info@myhomeschoolconnection.com

For parents, grandparents, and parents-to-be, this discussion is based upon material from two of Dr. Larimore's books, The Highly Healthy Child and The Highly Healthy Teen, who are interested in learning and applying the A,B,C,D's (Affirmation, Blameless love, Connectedness and Discipline) of raising and nurturing highly healthy children in today's rat-race world. In addition, Dr. Walt will discuss how these characteristics combine to reveal a person's parenting style and the impact that this has on children.

About Dr. Walt Larimore

Dr. Larimore is one of America's best-known family physicians and is listed in the Best Doctors in America, Who's Who in Medicine and Healthcare, and the International Health Professionals of the Year. His MD degree is from Louisiana State University, with AOA Honors, while his Family Medicine residency, with an emphasis in Sports Medicine was at the Duke University Medical Center, where he was named one of the top twelve Family Medicine residents in the nation. He also completed a Queen's Teaching Fellowship in Nottingham, England.

After his training, Dr. Larimore practiced 4 years in the Smoky Mountains before moving to Central Florida to practice for 16 years. From 1993-1994 he served as the President of the Florida Academy of Family Physicians. In 1996, he was named America's Outstanding Family Medicine Educator by the American Academy of Family Physicians. In 2000, Dr. and Mrs. Larimore were named Educators of the Year by the Christian Medical Association.

As a medical journalist, from 1996 to 2001, Dr. Larimore hosted over 850 episodes of the daily, live Ask the Family Doctor show on Fox's Health Network, being awarded the prestigious "Gracie" Award by the American

As a medical journalist, from 1996 to 2001, Dr. Larimore hosted over 850 episodes of the daily, live Ask the Family Doctor show on Fox's Health Network, being awarded the prestigious "Gracie" Award by the American Women in Radio and Television. From 2002 to 2004, Dr. Larimore hosted the Focus on Your Family's Health's syndicated radio and TV features.

Dr. Larimore is a frequent guest about family health topics on a wide variety of television and radio programs and has appeared on The Today Show, CBS's Morning Show, several Fox News programs, and CNN's Anderson Cooper 360.

Dr. Larimore has written or edited over twenty books and over 600 articles in a variety of medical journals and lay magazines. His best-selling books include Bryson City Tales, Bryson City Seasons, and Alternative Medicine: The Christian Handbook.

Dr. Larimore co-wrote, with Barb, his childhood sweetheart and wife of over 35 years, His Brain, Her Brain: How divinely designed differences can strengthen your marriage. He also wrote the health chapter for Coach Joe Gibb's best-selling book Game Plan for Life.